Footnotes:

- ^{1/} The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- ^{2/} Candidates required to file electronically with the Secretary of State must file this report if they receive a contribution of $5,000 or more from a single source at any time other than the 90-day election cycle. (Election cycle is the 90 days prior to the candidate's election and ending on the date of election.)
- ^{3/} Candidates file October 10, 2003, if contributions totaling $5,000 or more are made during the period July 1 through September 30, 2003, to other state officeholders, candidates for elective state office, or committees primarily formed to support or oppose any elected state officer/candidate.
- ^{4/} In addition to paper reports, candidates must file electronically if, since January 1, 2000, they receive contributions or make expenditures totaling $50,000 or more. For information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.
- ^{5/} Because January 10, January 31, and July 31, 2004, fall on a Saturday, these deadlines are extended to January 12, February 2, and August 2, 2004, respectively.
- ^{6/} Candidates file on January 10, 2004, if contributions totaling $5,000 or more are made during the period July 1 through December 31, 2003, to other state officeholders, state candidates, or committees primarily formed to support or oppose any elected state officer/candidate. Otherwise, file by January 31, 2004.
- ^{7/} Candidates must file the statements due January 22, February 19, October 5, and October 21, 2004, if any contributions or independent expenditures are made during the corresponding period.
- ^{8/} A controlled committee of a candidate may not make an independent expenditure to support or oppose another candidate.

Additional Notes:

- There is no provision in the law for an extension of a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- See Addendum to Campaign Information Disclosure Manuals for additional reporting requirements. Additional reports may be triggered if payments are made in connection with ballot measures or other candidates.
